

November 11, 2025: On America Has Been Captured by Evil

Honestly, there is nothing else left for me to report.

Every day I am held inside of a false imprisonment by the President of the United States and his Freemason team of spies and oppressors.

Politicians, police units, government agents of every sort: I blame all of you for the loss of America.

It certainly wasn't me. I fought for the rights of my neighbors throughout my entire life.

Now, nobody is here to help me, hear me, or care. In fact, the very same neighbors that I rush to help are the same people that are rushing to oppress me on behalf of the government of the United States of America.

America, your government wants to be a criminal government.
America, your government is not going to protect you.

America is fake. The law barely works for the least important things you need to accomplish.

Everything else is controlled by a group of insiders that are being fed opportunities and freebies.

I have seen it. I have witnessed it. I have experienced it.

If I weren't a God-fearing man that believes in the power of good in the world, I would simply recommend that you join a criminal gang. They truly do have more opportunities to succeed than the common man and woman in America today.
